

Rules and adress about Online

Briajae Mosley

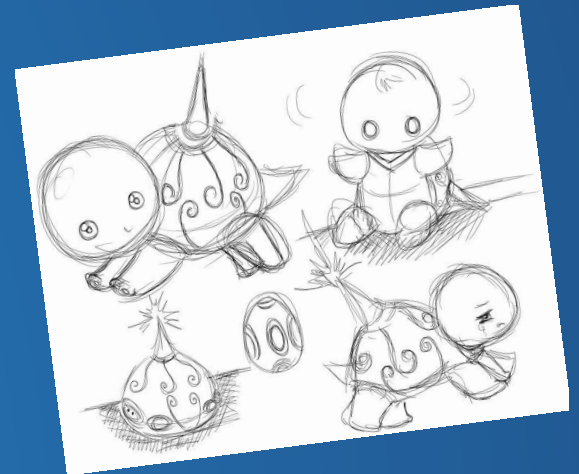

Rules about online

You should never reply back to someone that you don't know. Also never give people your address, phone number, name or last name, or any other personal information because they can try and find you and you don't want that to happen so keep your personal things to yourself.

Cyber Bullying

Never cyber bully online because it can happen to you and you don't want that because people can be really mean.

Never ask for passwords or user names

Never ask people for their passwords and usernames so you can log in their account because they will ask you to give them your and also they can delete the things you have on your account.

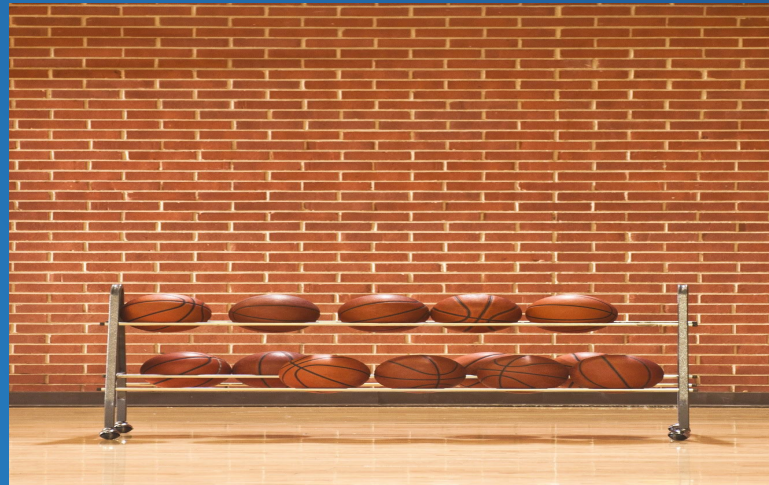

Finally Ending

Remember that you never cyber bully it can happen to you. Also, remember that you never ask for personal questions.

A place you can get bullied school

A place you can get bullied at a game