

One day a boy ran over his dog because he was going to a party that had a cat on a hill and was going to eat a fish that was going to eat a paper that had a good grade on it with a bus in the sky wity a party going on.

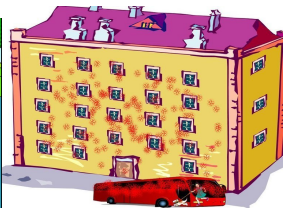

1

The boy was going to get the paper before the fish was going to eat it. Then the boy was going to school so he did not catch the bus on time so he was the last to go to school.

The next day the boy was not going to school because he got a funny fish the day before. The next day the boy was going to eat something he found the piece of paper with the good grade on it. The end

