

The Dark Sky

Zoey and Aniya

Every night in the dark sky things go on. The dark sky is always so close to us. "Why" we asked to the dark sky, "why do you hide from the light". The sky does not say anything. "That is fine, that is just fine. Now the light hides from the dark." "I just don't get it", Happy says. "I know what's going on ". What's going on" Happy asked.

It's called THE DARK SKY", Love said in a deep voice". "What's that" Happy asked.

"it is a", Love started "stop with the story" said Happy. The next day Happy and i went outside to take our dog to play . Then Happy asked if the DARK SKY was still going on, i said "i dont know. "We should just leave this alone and forget about the whole thing. "You `re right",said Love.
